Dear President Falconer,

Some time ago, in reply to a letter from Cattaneo, I told him that he would be re-appointed for 1919-1920, but that there was little likelihood of my recommending him for next year. The letter which he has sent you is apparently his next move. Mr. Cacciapuoti informs me that Cattaneo will not be re-appointed for missionary work. If he returns to Canada, he will be wholly dependent on us for employment. As I have told you before, he is not the kind of teacher we need. His only qualifications are a pleasant manner and ability to speak his native tongue. If we retain him, it will be impossible for many years to make a good appointment. Italian scholarship in philology and literature is of a very high order, and we cannot risk to trifle any longer with a man like Cattaneo. As you recall he came as one part of his time — but turns a mill. His appointment was temporary, made during Prof. Frazer's illness. But on the whole he would not have been reappointed. The uncertainty has acted generally by him during the year. I should hesitate to touch extra hours merely to assume further obligations, and recommend that you tell him frankly that we cannot be expected to take the responsibility of recalling him.

Yours truly,

Dear Professor Buchanan:

I have spoken to the Superintendent about the keys and room for Mr. Patterson and Mr. Lipari. He tells us that he has been endeavouring to arrange for the keys but that he has had to send them to the factory as there are no patterns here. He is also sending the plumber to-day to see what can be done to make the room more comfortable.

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear President Falconer,

Mr. Pijoan has been honored by an invitation from the American Institute of Archaeology to lecture at various centres in Canada and the United States sometime during the next term. I would recommend that you grant him leave of absence, and that someone, preferably Prof. Smedley, take his classes and be paid by Mr. Pijoan. He does not know as yet how long he will be away, but it may be two or three weeks.

Yours truly
Milton A. Buchanan.
